ABOUT US

SI Office, IIT Bhilai

Who are we?

Namaste! Sustainable India is a premier research initiative of the Sri Aurobindo Yoga and Knowledge Foundation (SAYKF), dedicated to advancing sustainability through science-driven, evidence-based solutions. Operating as a Government-of-India-recognized research foundation (Registered u/s 12AA and 80G), we bridge the gap between grassroots fieldwork and high-level academic research, partnering with leading institutions to turn visionary ideas into scalable impact.

Research & Operational Infrastructure

- Resource Centre at IIT Bhilai: Serving as our hub for advanced sustainable technologies and innovation.
- Rural Research Centre (Village Funda, Chhattisgarh): Actively driving grassroots interventions across 104+ villages focusing on water, waste, and energy solutions.
- Global Academic Partnerships: Collaborating with institutions like the Singapore University of Social Sciences (SUSS), IITs, NITs, ICSSR, NUS , Coal India, SECL , SAIL for regional research and policy support.
- Publications: Publishing The Progress International Journal and The Sustainable India Magazine to showcase applied research, peer-reviewed case studies, and field-tested models for sustainable development.
